MEDIA COVERAGE

From the tip of the Panhandle and down through Miami, the University of Florida athletic program attracts statewide interest from newspapers, magazines, television, websites and radio stations. UF holds its fair share of the national spotlight too, as media outlets such as ESPN, USA Today and Sports Illustrated track the progress of not only the nationally ranked football team, but also the careers of the many Gator world-class athletes. Locally, more than dozen media outlets regularly cover the Gators. In addition to daily coverage from the local media, many of the state's larger papers such as the Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post, Miami Herald, Ft. Lauderdale Sun Sentinel, Florida Times Union and the Tampa Bay Times cover the Gator teams. The UF Communications Department also helps student-athletes' hometown media follow the careers of Gators from their area.

Jenny Rowland, one of the nation's rising coaching talents, begins season five as University of Florida's head gymnastics coach. Rowland is the seventh head coach for the Gator program, which begins its 48th seasons in 2020.

Rowland brought experiences from the sport's highest level to Florida. She is a former U.S. National Team member, a collegiate All-American and was named a 2015 National Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year.

Rowland's Coaching Career:

At Florida:
The Gators ranked among the nation's top four teams throughout Rowland's first four seasons at Florida. In NCAA Super Six team final action, the 2016 Gators were fourth and took third in 2017 and 2018.

The Gators claimed two Southeastern Conference titles under Rowland – winning the 2016 SEC Championships and the 2019 SEC regular-season crown. Rowland shared the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year honors.

In the last four years, 11 Gators collected 40 All-America honors at the NCAA Championships. Three Gators claimed seven NCAA event titles - Bridget Sloan (2016 NCAA all-around, uneven bars, balance beam), Alex McMurtry (2017 all-around, uneven bars; 2018 vault) and Alicia Boren (2019 floor exercise). Sloan (2016) and McMurtry (2017) claimed the Honda Award, given annually to the top collegiate female athlete in each of 12 sports.

The Gators also excelled in the classroom, with the team's cumulative 3.61 grade point average for the fall 2018 semester ranking among the best ever among all Florida teams. The 2017 NCAA Elite 90 Award went to McMurtry, an honor given to the student-athlete with the highest grade point average at each of the 90 NCAA Championship sites. McMurtry earned a 2018 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and fellow senior Grace McLaughlin received a $10,000 postgraduate scholarship as the 2018 Brad Davis SEC Community Service Award winner.

In the fall of 2019, Rowland was appointed to the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Committee. Her term runs through the 2023 season.

At Auburn:
Rowland came to Florida after spending five seasons at Auburn. She joined the Auburn coaching staff as an assistant coach in October of 2010 and was elevated to associate head coach in March of 2013. Rowland worked with all aspects of the Auburn gymnastics program, coordinating all of the program's community outreach efforts and interactions on campus as well as playing an integral role in recruiting and in-gym activities.

She was named co-National Assistant Coach of the Year in 2015 after helping Auburn reach the NCAA Super Six for the first time in 22 years.

She served as the lead balance beam coach, as the Tigers put up the top beam totals of 2015 Southeastern Conference and NCAA Semifinal II competition. Three Tigers earned beam All-America honors in 2015. She also worked with the Tigers' floor exercise and routine construction. Rowland, who is a Category 3 International Brevet judge, offered her judging expertise through video breakdown of Auburn's routines.

Coaching Career Start in Sooner State:
Rowland coached Elite gymnasts at Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Oklahoma, for five years and then joined the Oklahoma coaching staff in June of 2001. At OU, she helped coach the Sooners to the 2004 Big XIII title, three-time team NCAA qualifiers (2004-06) and three Big XIII Gymnasts of the Year.

As a Gymnast:
During her gymnastics career, Rowland was a USA National Team member from 1985-1990 and was part of the U.S.'s 1989 World Championships team. During her collegiate career, she earned All-America honors for the uneven bars in 1993 for Arizona State.

After retiring from competition, she returned to her home state, enrolling at the University of Oklahoma to finish her degree.

More Rowland Info:
She graduated from Oklahoma with a bachelor's degree in health and sports sciences in 1997. Rowland married Garon Rowland, an All-American gymnast for the Sooners, and the couple has two daughters – Ella and Emmy.

Rowland is a Category 3 International Brevet level judge. She served on the judging panel for the 2008, 2012 and 2016 U.S. Olympic Trials.

"When we started this search, there was one name that kept coming up - Jenny Rowland. What Auburn has done over the past few seasons is quite impressive and she's played a big role in the Tigers' progress. We feel confident she's ready to guide the Gator program.

"She wants Gator gymnasts to thrive in all aspects of their student-athletic career – in the classroom, in the competitive arena and in developing the life skills to be successful following college. She knows what is like to be a competitor on the national, international and collegiate stages. She has what it takes to be a successful recruiter as she's built relationships with so many in the gymnastics world.

"We welcome Jenny, her husband, Garon and their daughters Ella and Emmy, to the Gator program."

ASSISTANT COACHES

ADRIAN BURDE
ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Burde (pronounced bur-DAY) enters his 14th season with the Florida gymnastics program in the fall of 2019. He coaches vault and tumbling, as well as aids in recruiting and team conditioning.

Burde's Coaching Career:

At Florida:
Burde has coached vault and tumbling for the Gators since 2011. A Gator has claimed three recent NCAA vault titles (Marissa King/2011, Kytra Hunter/2012, Alex McMurtry/2018) Florida has also taken Southeastern Conference event titles each of the last nine seasons (Kennedy Baker 2016 vault & 2017 floor; Ashanée Dickerson, 2011 floor exercise; Hunter, 2012 & 2015 vault; 2013, 2014 & 2015 floor; McMurtry 2015 & 2018 vault & 2017 floor; Sloan, 2013 floor; Trinity Thomas 2019 vault).

Florida's 10 advancing to the final five NCAA floor exercise finals (individual event championship format ceased after 2015) is the nation's top total in that time span and UF's nine in the NCAA vault finals is the second highest. The Gators' floor total of 49.725 in 2013 Super Six action set the NCAA Championships' event record and Florida's 49.875 in the 2014 home opener is the second-highest floor total in NCAA history. With Florida's meet-highs of 49.675 (2014) and 49.65 in 2015, the Gators own three of the top five floor totals in NCAA Super Six history.

Four Gators matched Florida's vault and floor exercise records in the last six seasons. Hunter led the nation in 2014 with six 10.0 marks (two vault; four floor) and Sloan also turned in a 10.0 floor score. Sloan opened the 2015 season with a perfect vault mark and Alex McMurtry also posted a vault 10.0. Kennedy Baker collected 10.0 floor marks in 2016 and 2017. McMurtry added another vault 10.0 and earned her first floor 10.0 in 2017. She also scored a vault 10.0 in 2018.

Burde coached the Gator uneven bar performers when he joined the program and his impact was evident early. The 2007 Gators opened the season with the team's then third-highest uneven bars team total ever of 49.575 at the Super Six Challenge. The UF bar record was reset to 49.70 versus Kentucky on Feb. 16. The Gators held the No. 1 position in the national bar rankings for the final nine weeks of the regular season. Florida was again among the national uneven bars leaders in Burde's second season. Florida's total of 49.625 set in the Gators' Link to Pink meet was the nation's highest uneven bars total of the 2008 season and ranks third all-time for the Gators. Two Gators advanced to the 2009 NCAA bar final, with then sophomore Alicia Goodwin sharing third overall – matching the then-second-highest UF bar finish in the program's history. All-America honors were earned by three Gator bar performers in 2010, with two advancing to the event final.

At Nebraska:
Burde was part of the University of Nebraska staff for the 2002 through 2006 seasons. At Nebraska, he served as the vault and floor coach and conditioning coordinator.

Burde helped lead the Cornhuskers to four NCAA Super Six team finals (2002, '03, '05, '06). He saw NU athletes earn 19 All-America honors in the floor and vault events. It was at Nebraska that Burde coached Canadian Richelle Simpson, the 2003 NCAA all-around and floor exercise champion. He served as her coach at the 2003 World Championships in Anaheim, California, and the 2003 Pan American Games.

Collegiate Coaching Honors:

At Florida
- • 2007 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year
- Shared 2011, 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2017 NACGC Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year

At Nebraska

ASSISTANT COACHES

OWEN FIELD
ASSISTANT COACH

Owen Field is in his fifth season with the Gators in 2019-20. His responsibilities include coaching the Gator uneven bar performers, sharing the team's conditioning coach duties and overseeing team equipment needs and maintenance.

Field's Coaching Career:

At Florida:
A Gator shared the last two of the last four NCAA uneven bars titles – Bridget Sloan (2016) and Alex McMcMurtry (2017). The Gators' uneven bars lineup was among the nation's top four rankings throughout the 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 seasons.

McMurtry was the nation's only gymnast to turn in multiple 10.0 bars marks in 2016 and she added two more in 2017 – including in the NCAA Super Six team final. She was nearly perfect again in 2018 NCAA Super Six action with her fifth 9.975 bars mark of the season. Five Gators collected seven All-America honors on the event in the last four NCAA Championships.

Field shared the 2016, 2017 and 2019 NACGC Southeast Region Coach of the Year honor with Adrian Burde.

At Nebraska:
Before joining Florida, Field was with the University of Nebraska women's gymnastics program, serving roles as manager or volunteer coach during his six years with the Huskers. When he was a volunteer coach, Field worked alongside head coach Dan Kendig to coach the Huskers' on uneven bars. He also assisted with the Huskers' strength and conditioning program.

While Field was with Nebraska, the Huskers advanced to the NCAA Championships four times (2015, 2014, 2012, 2010), reaching the Super Six in 2014. Nebraska gymnastics picked up a total of 12 All-America honors in either uneven bars or all-around while Field was with the Huskers. A Husker won conference bars titles in 2012, 2013 and 2015.
Field also served as Southern Utah's volunteer coach for the 2011 season.

Field was the club coach at UNL, the Nebraska School of Gymnastics, and was a coach at the Southern Utah Gymnastics Academy. Field has coached at several gymnastics camps, including Lake Owen Gymnastics Camp, Flipfest and Woodward Gymnastics Camp.

Personal:
Field received his bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska in 2015.

He was born in Sheboygan, Wis., on July 11, 1990.

Jeremy Miranda
VOLUNTEER COACH

Volunteer Assistant Coach Jeremy Miranda provides his innovative and artistic touch to the Gator gymnastics routines again for the 2020 season. Entering his 13th season, Miranda oversees all creative aspects musically and choreographically for the Gator floor routines.

His 12 years at Florida have included 11 NCAA Championship appearances, three NCAA Super Six team titles, 37 All-America honors earned in NCAA Championships' floor competition (including the 2015 and 2019 NCAA champion), nine Southeastern Conference floor champions, 17 NCAA Regional floor champions, and 158 regular season floor titles. Also, the Gator's floor routine rotation at the 2013 NCAA Super Six currently holds the highest team floor score ever posted in NCAA Championship history at 49.725.

Prior to joining the Gator program in the summer of 2007, Miranda worked with the University of Nebraska women's gymnastics team for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. His choreography and assistance to the coaching staff helped the Huskers to the Super Six Championship both seasons. In addition, Miranda also served as club coach for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics from 2005-07, coaching classes ranging from preschool to elite.

Miranda spent several summers as master staff instructor at the world-renowned Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pennsylvania, and additionally has served on the coaching staff at multiple summer camps and clinics across the country.

A notable gymnast in his own right, Miranda was a level 10 gymnast who culminated his gymnastics career with a co-national championship finish on the floor exercise at the 2005 Junior Olympic National Championship, as well as an eighth-place finish on the vault.

A native of Chamberlain, S.D., Miranda graduated summa cum laude from the University of Florida, receiving a bachelor of fine arts degree in dance performance during the summer of 2010. He currently oversees the choreography for the many shows of Walt Disney World. Miranda has experience as a professional dancer and choreographer in New York City and appeared in many live stage productions such as Hello Dolly!, Cats, A Chorus Line, West Side Story and Mary Poppins as well as TV appearances on Orange is the New Black, The Following, Law and Order SVU, The Blacklist and SMASH. He has served as dance captain for Norwegian Cruise Lines, ship-wide dance captain for Disney Cruise Lines and worked in the revamp of Donn Arden's Jubilee! at Bally's in Las Vegas.

2020 Bests:

Because her parents were both Gator grads, a catalog of Florida clothing would arrive at the Alexander household each fall. Perfect timing because Sierra was about to outgrow her last Gator cheerleading outfit and was ready to order a new one. That was her go-to outfit from ages 7-12 and although Mom tried to convince her to wear other clothes, Sierra only wanted to wear the orange & blue. Named "Most Outspoken" of West Broward High School's class of 2016. That trait of speaking honestly for herself and others comes from being bullied as a youth. Favorite food? Candy – loves it all (except anything with peanuts due to her allergy). Sierra can nap on command – except on a plane. A Gator now, but already has plan to attend graduate school in England. Why England? Sierra finds the history and culture intriguing.

At age eight, Alyssa had to make a choice. She was participating in both gymnastics and tennis, and one day much to her mother's embarrassment, she finally threw her racket across the court and declared, "I hate tennis!" When pressed why, Alyssa confessed what she didn't like was being tired for gymnastics. It was then that she started to dedicate her whole heart to the sport. Alyssa says her favorite event is beam and she loves performing her Onodi while competing on the event. In her room back home in Texas, a big Gatorhead rack holds Alyssa's many medals – including the 2014 World Championships' gold she won as a member of Team USA.

Maegan enjoyed meeting others from different nations in the athletes' village. Also participated in soccer and dance, but it was gymnastics that captured her heart. The challenge of performing those gravity-defying skills is what she loves. A routine is something she not only competes, but also follows daily. Maegan schedules her day and admits there is a bit of satisfaction in checking off completed to-do items. One thing she would like to find more time for is painting. Maegan's paintbrush or colored pencils capture objects, landscapes or animals. Leah Clapper realized after attending several work meeting during a "Bring Your Daughter to Work" day that she didn't want to follow her father into engineering. Leah wants something that plays on her eye for detail and organization traits, but gives room for creativity. Advertising seems to check those boxes. Leah finished her freshman year by traveling to Australia in May of 2019 for UF's Study Abroad program. Her start in gymnastics came when her mom watched toddler Leah walking on the edges of their blow-up pool. Leah taught her younger sister, Lily, different skills in the family's basement. Mom stopped Leah's tutoring of Lily at back handsprings. Lily then joined Leah at the gym. Baking with their mom is something the Clapper sisters enjoyed from a young age. Her club coach Maggie Haney calls Jazzy a very 'chill' gymnast. Jazzy accelerated her high school classes, graduating a year early to become a Gator as soon as possible. Amelia moved to formal gymnastics training at age 4. That gymnastics career extended to include eight international appearances with Team USA and she closed her International Elite career at the 2016 Olympic Trials. Nya Reed is an only child and the constant coming & goings of friends in her home dispels the notion she had a lonely childhood. Santa Claus took a step up in Nya's eyes when he left the gift of Amy (her Bichon/Shih Tzu dog) one Christmas. While in Gainesville, Nya checks in with Amy via Facetime. The mother of past Kentucky gymnast Taylor Puryear noticed Nya's acrobatic abilities while playing at school. She told Nya's mom to bring her to Taylor's gym to watch and from that moment on, Nya fell in love with the sport. A trip to Peru with all-star region gymnastics and family trip to Jamaica broadened Nya's perspective of the world. Other destinations on her must-visit list are Africa and China.

Three-year old Payton Richards told her mom she wanted to try gymnastics after seeing 2004 Olympic all-around champion Carly Patterson performing on television. She also participated in soccer, softball, swimming and ballet but ended her mom's aspirations for Payton to be a dancer after narrowing the field to just gymnastics. The Chicago-connection shows in Richards sibling first names. Payton and her oldest brother, Jordan, are named after Chicago all-time great athletes. When her younger brother arrived, Payton told her mom to return him for a sister. But now, Payton loves being the only girl among the Richards' quad. She credits them for making her tough. Payton can beat them in a footrace, but they tease her for her lack of wakeboarding aptitude when at their Indiana lake home. No Paraskevidekatriaphobia with Payton – she was born on Friday the 13th! The family has two English bulldogs – Amelia and Zoe. Payton FaceTimes often with her brothers to make sure they are walking the pair as often as Payton does when she is home.

Savannah Schoenherr's parents sought an outlet for their oldest child's energy. Soccer was first, then they tried dance, but that activity was dismissed by Savannah after a single class. Then came Option 3: gymnastics. It was an immediate hit. Mom often had to pry a young Savannah off the beam when it was time to go home. Savannah appreciates all the sacrifices by her parents to help her gymnastics career advance. This includes mom joining Savannah in Maryland while she trained for three years – mom was always there with a word of encouragement. Santa does listen! Megan's gymnastics career began when she saw Cirque du Soleil on TV at age three and asked Santa for "ginastics" for Christmas. She then enrolled in gymnastics lessons at four years old. When her mother asked her if she was interested in competing even though she was a shy kid, she replied, "of course I want to compete; if you compete, you get a medal!" Today, Megan said gymnastics still helps her to break out of her shy side and show a different part of herself doing what she knows best. Halley Taylor is an aspiring prosecutor who sometimes practices persuading arguments on her two younger brothers. It is not always affirmative for her side, but that's why she practices! Dad sends motivating texts before each competition. The maiden name of the person who inspires her to be better (Halley's mom) also inspired her first name. Prom was the day before the 2018 Junior Olympics Level 10 Championships. Two big events and Halley picked both. She attended prom Saturday night and then flew to Ohio to compete Sunday evening at JOs (and had the one of the best meets of her life). This fourth generation Gator has been coming to Florida football games and gymnastics meets since childhood. She noticed all the love and support that flows from Gator Nation and is thrilled now to be part of the Gator gymnastics team.

Trinity Thomas started gymnastics at age seven – making her a latecomer to the sport. In her third and final year of high school, Trinity joined a couple high school teams. Just like gymnastics, Trinity proved to be an early adaptor. She took second in the state 2A 1-meter diving championships. On the track, she competed pole vault and participated in sprints from 100- to 400-meters, passing the baton to her younger sister, Tesia, on the 400-meter relay team. The initials T.L.T. are shared by the five Thomas siblings and their parents. Scary movies are her favorite genre. Sang with her church's worship team when younger – still loves to sing. Mom sends Trinity a quote or devotion each morning. Now that Trinity is sole provider for clean laundry or a tidy room while at college, she's developed a new appreciation for all her mom does every day. She also misses mom's pot roast!

GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

GENERAL DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor	0.5
Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)	0.1
Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor	0.3
Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise)	0.1
Intermediate swing (bars)	0.3
Concentration pauses longer than two seconds	0.1
Coach blocking judges' view	0.2
Competing out of order (taken from the team score)	0.1
"Up to the competition level" deduction	0.1

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

2020 Gator Vaults

Vault/Gymnasts	Value
Yurchenko layout with full twist: Sierra Alexander, Alyssa Baumann, Jazmyn Foberg, Rachel Gowey, Amelia Hundley, Sydney Johnson-Scharpf, Nya Reed, Megan Skaggs, Halley Taylor, Payton Richards	9.95
Yurchenko layout with one and a half twist: Payton Richards, Alyssa Baumann, Nya Reed, Savannah Schoenherr, Trinity Thomas	10.0

Gymnastics skills are divided into different categories (A, B, C, D, E), with E containing the exceptionally difficult skills. An asterisk denotes E-level skills (*).

BEGINNING IN 2020

Start values for uneven bars, balance beam and floor exercise starts at 9.4. The gymnasts are required to gain six-tenths in bonus on those events to get to 10.0. In previous years, the start value for these events was 9.5, requiring gymnasts to earn five-tenths bonus.

UNEVEN BARS

Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration, intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds

Requirements for the bars (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Minimum of 2 bar changes
2) 2 flight elements, minimum of 2 different C's or D and B (not to include dismount)
3) One element with long axis turn, minimum of "C" (not to include dismount)
4) "C" dismount with the following modification: "C" dismount immediately preceded by same two A or B elements = .10 deduction (not .20)

Gators to Watch in 2020:
Alyssa Baumann: Ray, overshoot hand, double layout dismount*
Maegan Chant: Tkatchev, clear hip, bail handstand, double layout dismount*
Leah Clapper: giant ½ to pike jaeger*, overshoot hand, half-in half-out*
Jazmyn Foberg: Pak salto, Shaposh to immediate Geinger on high bar, full out dismount*
Rachel Gowey: Ray*, toe on toe off, Pak salto, double layout dismount*
Amelia Hundley: Shaposh, Pak salto, Khorkina*, full out dismount*
Payton Richards: Shaposh to overshoot hand, double layout dismount*
Savannah Schoenherr: toe ½ to straddle jaeger, overshoot hand, double front ½*
Megan Skaggs: Ray* to immediate Pak salto, double layout dismount*
Trinity Thomas: Shaposh immediate clear hip, pak salto to toe handstand, Khorkina*, double layout dismount*

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, turns and leaps. The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no under time deduction.

Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).
2) Dance or dance acro series with a minimum of two (2) elements, dance element C or higher.
3) A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the acro/dance series).
4) Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.
5) Minimum of C dismount or B dismount proceeded by and directly connected to any D acro element.

2019 SEASON RECAP

The Gators took sole possession of the Southeastern Conference regular-season title with a 6-1 record. It was the 11th league title for the program.

Jan. 11 versus No. 11 Missouri

2019 opened with a 197.30-196.450 win over Missouri in front of Stephen C. O'Connell Center crowd of 8,446 – the second-highest season-opening crowd for the Gator program.

Florida won at least a share of each event title. Senior Alicia Boren's four titles included matching her Gator all-time season-high all-around total of 39.575 for the second consecutive year. Boren shared three event titles. Freshman Nya Reed and Boren tied for the floor title (9.925). Boren and junior Rachel Gowey each turned in the high beam mark of 9.90. Boren and Missouri's Hannah McCrary shared the vault win (9.875).

Freshman Trinity Thomas' 9.95 took the uneven bars win. Thomas also took second with the fourth-highest total (39.475) for a Gator making her all-around debut.

Five from Florida's top-ranked freshmen class made their collegiate debuts against Missouri. In addition to Reed and Thomas, Leah Clapper, Sydney Johnson-Scharpf and Savannah Schoenherr competed in the season opener.

Jan. 18 at No. 5 LSU

It was exactly what was expected for the nation's top dual of the weekend. After trading the lead back and forth, it was No. 3 Florida hitting every routine on its final rotation to surge ahead to take a 197.50–197.425 win at No. 5 Louisiana State in front of 12,093 at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Florida trailed LSU by two-tenths at the midpoint of the meet. Trinity Thomas led Florida on bars (9.925) and vault (9.875). Three consecutive floor exercise marks of 9.9 or better narrowed the Tigers lead to 0.05 after three rotations. Thomas' 9.95 shared the evening's floor title. A six-for-six balance beam set gave the Gators the winning margin. The final four Gators all posted marks of 9.9 or better. Gowey used a 9.95 to win her second consecutive beam title.

The loss ended LSU's 35-home meet win streak, which dated back to March 8, 2013 (197.725-197.50 loss vs No. 5 Alabama). It was Florida's first win in four visits to Baton Rouge, as the Gators last won a dual in the PMAC in 2011.

The Gators won the match-up between No. 3 Florida at No. 5 Louisiana State. It was the Gators' first win in Baton Rouge since 2011.

Jan. 25 at No. 17 Kentucky

Florida trailed Kentucky by 0.175 after the opening rotation. The Gators' school-record uneven bars set (49.725) reversed the standings, as Florida owned nearly a half point lead at midpoint.

Senior Alicia Boren started Florida's bars lineup with a collegiate-best 9.95. Florida turned in six bars scores of 9.9 or better as the final total of 49.725 set the program record. Freshman Trinity Thomas' 9.975 won the event title.

Thomas led Florida on balance beam to win the event (9.925). Florida finished the evening with a then season-best 49.55 on floor. Boren and Thomas shared the floor win at 9.925 with Kentucky's Mollie Korth.

Thomas won the all-around at 39.70 and Boren was runner-up at 39.525.

Trinity Thomas earned her first of eight 9.975 marks (three bars, five floor) with her winning uneven bars routine versus Kentucky. Eight nearly perfect marks of 9.975 leads Gator freshmen all-time.

Feb. 1 at No. 1 Oklahoma

It was the season's top scoring dual meet of the entire 2019 season, but that's expected when the nation's top two teams meet. No. 1 Oklahoma using the nation's fourth-highest total of the 2019 season, 198.325, to take the win over No. 2 Florida (198.025), in front of a record Lloyd Noble Center crowd of 5,082.

The Gators had made 16 consecutive dual meet visits to Tuscaloosa without a win (last dual meet win – Feb. 3, 1979).

The meet opened with a season-low on uneven bars (49.175). Amelia Hundley's 9.875 led the Gators on the event. @ - 1993 marked the first year of a two-day format of team competition. The top six teams from the first day advance to the "Super Six" competition. 2018 was final season for Super Six format. The current format of top two teams from each of the four-team semifinals advancing to the four-team final began in 2019.

From 2016-19, results from the two NCAA semifinals are combined to determine individual event champions. All-America status continues to be based on NCAA semifinal session finish (No. 1-4 = first team; No. 5-8 = second team). Individual finishes shown from 2016 forward are combined results.

From 1999-2015, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advanced to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spots (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions earned second team All-America honors. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition earn All-America first-team honors; the next eight earn All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

* - denotes All-America second team; ^ - IG denotes International Gymnast

Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA's two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spot (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition (results from both sessions combined) earned All-America first-team honors; the next eight earned All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors. In 2013, the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) began awarding regular-season All-America honors based on final regular-season regional qualifying standings (top four and ties are first team No. 5-8 are second team).

A growing fan base is filling the Exactech Arena to cheer Gator gymnastics. The crowds are getting bigger each year at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. The Gators raised their average attendance for the second consecutive season in 2019 to 8,333. It was the third time in the last four seasons the Gators set their attendance average (2019: 8,333; 2018: 8,304; 2016: 7,433).

Nine of the program's top 10 crowds have come in the last 11 seasons. The 2008 regular-season dual meet featuring then No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Georgia drew a Gator gymnastics record crowd of 10,855. The 2014 home opener for the defending NCAA champion Gators drew the program's third-largest crowd of 10,013. Florida's strong fan base played a big role in the Gators being awarded the 2010 NCAA Gymnastics Championships. Florida led the nation's six NCAA Regional sites in 2017 with a crowd of 5,214.
